Transportation:

- On the way to Epcot, all participants must ride the bus with us—no exceptions. This is a rule established by Disney.
- After the show, students are all expected to ride the bus home UNLESS a parent has emailed Mr. Doherty at least one day prior at jussi.doherty@ocps.net. Parents should not plan to take their child home from the park without making prior arrangements.

Watching the performance:

- Anyone who wishes to see the show will need to enter Epcot with a valid ticket.

Tickets:

- All performers receive two one-day, one-park passes to Disney. These passes will be distributed after the performance and are the students' compensation for their performance.
- We do not have to use any of our free passes to enjoy the park that night.

Food and What to Bring:

- Disney will provide a box dinner upon arrival
- Do not bring anything you do not absolutely need. There will be one table backstage at Epcot for sweaters and small purses.

As a Candlelight Honor Choir member, I understand the standards for my behavior are very high. I will follow all the Disney/ performance guidelines and act accordingly. I will learn my vocal part. I will be a leader musically and personally. I understand that my health and safety is my teachers' top priority.
