

Name: _____

Date: _____

The purpose of this assignment is to: 1) Demonstrate your research skills - including selecting topics, locating information, and taking Right-Side Notes. 2) Demonstrate your ability to boil in, formation down to the most important pieces of information. 3) Demonstrate your ability to use advanced language to share information in a thoughtful, informative, creative, and edited way.

Micro-Research Project

Use the Lesson Links and the books in the Media Center to study various structures. (You can pick your own or choose from Miss Kelly's suggestions.) Take one page of Right-Side Research Notes on loose leaf paper and then use those notes to create the following:

Create a "tweet" that provides a Big Truth about ALL structures: (100-140 characters)

---

---

Write a Facebook status that a structure might write: (Identify the structure on the short line.)

---

---

---

On a lined piece of paper, create a mock playlist in honor of the structures you researched. (Give the playlist a name on the line below.)

---

On an unlined piece of paper, draw a picture that you might post on Instagram to show something that you learned during your research: (Identify the picture on the line below.)

---

The purpose of this assignment is to: 1) Demonstrate your research skills - including selecting topics, locating information, and taking Right-Side Notes. 2) Demonstrate your ability to boil in, formation down to the most important pieces of information. 3) Demonstrate your ability to use advanced language to share information in a thoughtful, informative, creative, and edited way.

Micro-Research Project

Use the Lesson Links and the books in the Media Center to study various structures. (You can pick your own or choose from Miss Kelly's suggestions.) Take one page of Right-Side Research Notes on loose leaf paper and then use those notes to create the following:

Create a "tweet" that provides a Big Truth about ALL structures: (100 - 140 characters)

---

---

Write a Facebook status that a structure might write: (Identify the structure on the short line.)

---

---

---

On a lined piece of paper, create a collection of questions focused on the structures you researched. Show depth of thought by showing two levels of questions: general exploration and questions that dig deeper into the topic. (Give your question list a title on the line below.)

---

On an unlined piece of paper, draw a picture that you might post on Instagram to show something that you learned during your research: (Identify the picture on the line below.)

---