The screenshot shows the website education.ufl.edu/dual-enrollment/. The browser tab is labeled "UF | Dual-Enrollment". The navigation menu includes "HOME", "COURSES", "CONTACT", "APPLY", "FAQS", and "RESOURCES". A blue arrow points to the "APPLY" link in the navigation menu. Below the navigation is a dark blue banner with a cloud icon and the text "Online Dual Enrollment Updates: If you are interested in being a part of our Spring 2016 cohort, submit your information on our Apply page and our staff will contact you shortly. We can also be reached at 352-273-4155 for questions. Enrollment for Spring 2016 will close October 30th." Below this is a large image of a smiling young woman with long dark hair, wearing a blue and red plaid shirt, looking at a tablet. The text "Online Dual Enrollment" is overlaid on the image. Below the image, there is a paragraph: "Online Dual Enrollment helps eligible accelerated high school students access coursework at the University of Florida from their home district. Our fully online courses are taught by UF faculty, provide students with a college learning experience, and adhere to the UF academic calendar." An orange arrow points to a button labeled "APPLY NOW". At the bottom, there are three columns: "All Courses" with a book icon, "Apply Now" with a key icon, and "Resources" with a graduation cap icon. An orange arrow points to the "Apply Now" column.
