PLEDGE OF ORIGINALITY

I understand that plagiarism, “the stealing and use of the ideas or words of another as one’s own,” is both personally and legally painful for the entrant, his/her parents, teacher, and school; it can result in a lawsuit by the original publisher and severe economic and disciplinary consequences. I verify that the entry submitted is my original work and give permission for my work to be edited. (Any suggested edits are at the discretion of the writer. Editions will be approved/made by writers prior to publication.)
